Black-Draught Brings Refreshing Relief of Constipation Troubles

Constipation produces many disagreeable sensations, several of which are mentioned by Mr. T. E. Stith, of Boonville, Ind., who writes: "I have used Thedford's Black-Draught many years when needed for biliousness and other minor ills when a laxative was needed. I have a tight feeling in my chest when I get bilious. I get dizzy and feel very tired, just don't feel like doing my work. After taking Black-Draught, I feel much better. This is why I continue to use it when needed." . . . Thedford's Black-Draught is a good, purely vegetable laxative, obtainable for 25¢ a package.

Help your town grow by boosting the one institution devoted to advertising Appomattox, its home newspaper. You can size up a town's "live wires" by looking to see who advertises in the paper. The merchants who support the paper can do so or one reason—the public reads first and buys second.

TIMES-VIRGINIAN

A DEMOCRATIC WEEKLY FOR APPOMATTOX AND BUCKINGHAM COUNTIES

ESTABLISHED 1892.

Father DARKLEAF'S Column

Well, here's one on myself and N. E. Featherson. I had a dream. It seemed that Mr. Featherson was to call by to take me out some to call by to take me out some to see some friends. I was dressed in my store best. As the appointed hour, Mr. Featherson hove in sight, and would you believe it, he was on a bicycle and instructed me to perch on the handle-bars and he'd do the peddling!

Then, another scoop, an this is exclusive! It seems that when R. B. Hudgins, our worthy county agent, gets the notion to buy himself trousers, he does it in a big way. He ordered himself no less than three pairs recently. Now, the three pairs arrived and "Rube" was told to fetch them. Then it was at that precise moment that Mother Brightleaf decided that to preserve my editorial dignasty, I needed a new pair of trousers — and well you can guess— a clerk didn't know all three were for "Rube" so I am wearing one pair.

The Methodist minister who preceded Rev. Cunningham here was a great croquet player. I've been waiting for Spring to find out if C. W. Smith's parson-neighbor was also adept with the mallet. Well, I got my answer. T'other day I was on the seventh green of the local golf course fretting not to hry to sink a putt. Suddenly from out of a thicky a golf ball dropped and and down yonder almost 200 yards away was the parson. How do you guess? So, he's a golfer!

"Take A Chance," all talking moving picture, at the Auditorium Theatre, Appomatox, Saturday night May 12. Starring Jimmy Dunn, June Knight and Buddy Rogers.

In the Kitchen with 6 Famous Cooks

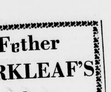
FOUR DELICIOUS CAKES FROM FOUR CORNERS OF THE UNITED STATES

(Ed. Note: This is one of a special series of articles on "Cooking Schools." Their recipes are "different." Cut them out and paste them in your cook book.)

Who ever heard of a family without at least one "cake-eating" member? I'm quite certain that such a household doesn't exist. Usually there are several folks clamoring for cake and more cake. It's the one food which seldom has "left overs."

It's also one of the foods which can be made just as rich or just as plain as the cook wants to make it.

MARGARET ALLEN HALL



For the Chocolate Fans

Rich Devil's Food Cake with Lapland Frosting is a cake to delight chocolate fans who like delicate, delicious flavor. Miss Margaret Allen Hall, Director of Nutrition at Simmons College of Household Arts, gives us this as her favorite recipe:

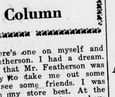
½ cup butter
2 cups sugar
2 cup yolks
2 eggs
2 cups flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 cup chopped nuts
2 squares chocolate

Cream the butter with one cup of sugar. Beat egg yolks until creamy; add other cup sugar gradually. Combine the two mixtures and add. Sift the measured mixture and flour together three times and add alternately with the milk, and fold in the stiffly beaten whites. Melt the chocolate and add to the batter. Pour batter into layers and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 30 minutes. Spread Lapland Frosting between layers.

Lapland Frosting

1 egg
1 square chocolate cut fine
1 tablespoon milk
1 tablespoon butter
½ teaspoon vanilla

Beat the egg, add milk, butter, sugar and chocolate. Cook gently, stirring constantly. When mixture comes to a boil, remove from fire, add vanilla and beat until thick enough to spread.



For the Children

Mrs. Farrar-Webster, the Philadelphia cooking expert, has really solved one of the problems of the culinary world. Add one tablespoon of Mrs. Rorer's molasses to a quart of flour or custard to the consistency of waffle batter and the finished product will be delightfully light and smooth. Bake in a moderate oven for about 30 minutes.

This may also be served with whipped cream as a delicious dessert.

Use Bananas, Too

Bananas flavor this delicious cake, recommended by Miss Grace Knox Young of the Los Angeles cooking extension service:

1¼ cups sugar
½ cup shortening
2 eggs
1 cup mashed bananas
2 tablespoons sour milk
1 teaspoon soda
2 cups flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup chopped walnut meats

Cream the shortening and sugar together, add the eggs, bananas, milk and soda. Sift the flour, salt and baking powder together and add to the mixture. Add the nuts and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 45 minutes.

Settling Disputes

IT IS a strange thing that we often resort to strife first and reason afterwards in their efforts to settle disputes. Misunderstandings, jealousy, envy, self-justification, and the like are corrected not through strife, but through reason and amicable agreement. Wars are not a means of securing such an agreement; but after the use of bayonet and gun has ceased, and reason does begin to bring about peaceful relations, then disputes are settled.

The ages have furnished historical data which prove that material ambitions and possessions afford no solid basis for peace, in either national or personal relations. Matter, being limited in its nature, expresses the belief of limitation in its every manifestation. Instead of making one feel secure, it makes him fearful lest his neighbor has more than he has. Instead of making one great, trust in matter weakens one's faith in God, and what this robs you relies upon it; and what this robs you relies upon it; and what this robs you relies upon it;
